

Some of our actions against war and militarization of society:

In front of the Trade Union Building, we show the names of the companies that are close partners of the Bundeswehr (German Army)

At the huge action day of the Trade Union Youth in the summer 2000 we took part and joined the motto "Give us the good life now" - we just added something: 1) "Give us the good life now - will not be possible with the Bundeswehr!" And 2) "Give us the good life now - will not be possible in the capitalist system!"

"...and then, private Müller, we strike back!" - street theatre in the tradition of the labor movement's agitation and propaganda, here used against war and annexation.

Not always do we reach the attention or publicity we want to achieve. But sometimes it happens: here is the German War Secretary Scharping speaking publicly in a tent in Munich about the German war against Yugoslavia. We were present and showed our protest written on t-shirts that soon after became a fashion trend among anti-war youth. The very next day, the papers and the media were full of pictures of us and the action itself. - The rest of the day, of course, our comrades spent in prison.
